

Mabel Brookhart.

TAKE ME BACK TO DIXIE

Published By Permission Of
JEROME H. REMICK
And Company
New York

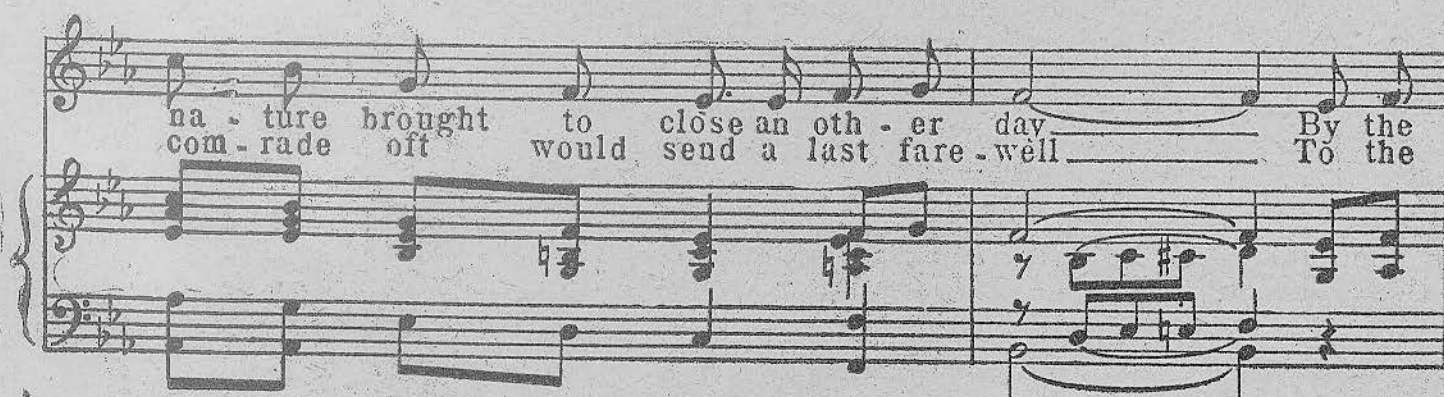

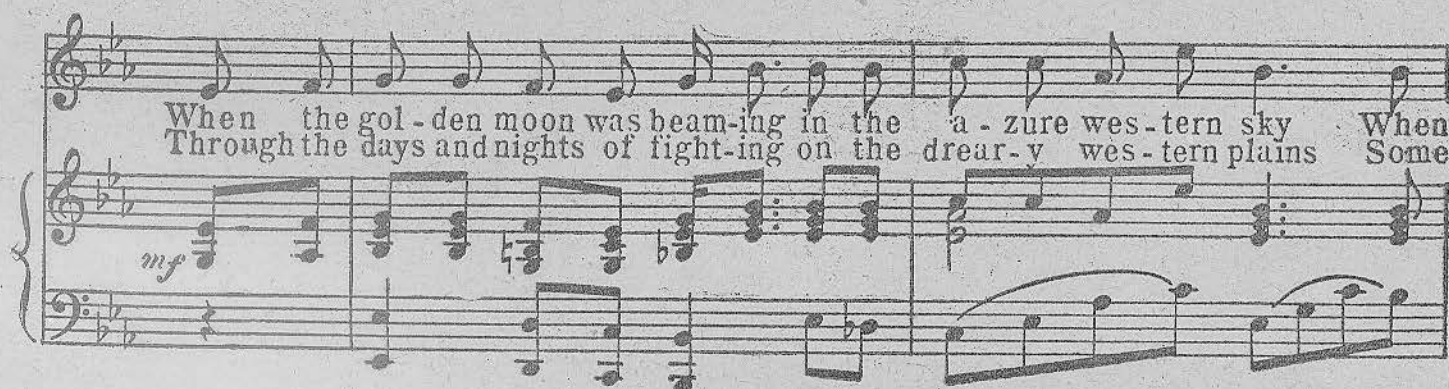

MUSIC SECTION CHICAGO SUNDAY EXAMINER SEPTEMBER 15 1907

PAGES 17-20

Take me Back to Dixie.

Words & Music by
CHAS. SHACKFORD.

Andante moderato.

think - ing of his home so far a - way He prayed for him who fought mid shot and shell The saw the old plan - ta - tion and he heard the dark - ies sing He last brave charge was end - ed and that sol - dier boy in blue Lay saw the steam - boat com - ing 'round the bend In his dy - ing when he whis - pered 'tis the end Wrap the dream he saw his sweet - heart and his com - rades heard him say Just stars and stripes a - round me and tell her not to mourn Then take me back to Dix - ie once a - gain.

 take me back to Dix - ie once a - gain.

CHORUS.
Andante.

I can hear her sing - ing com - ing down the lane I can hear the chil - dren join the sweet re - frain I can see the wild - wood where we loved to roam.

Andante con espressione.

Oh take me back to dear old Dix - ie and to the old folks at home.